

A Connection Between Our Handiwork & the Holy

We call ourselves the Knit Wits, the Prayer Shawl Ministry of North Decatur Presbyterian Church. Since February 2007, we have been knitting shawls for baptisms, graduations, weddings, and also for the sick or troubled among us.

Several of us knit baby caps for the Anne Sayre Birthing Center in Cahabon, Guatemala, a ministry of the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta. Check out the birthing center on Facebook!

Completed shawls are spread on the table, then we place our hands on our work and a member leads us in the blessing. Before we present a shawl, we attach a beautiful card created and designed by Janice Butt, a fellow Knit Wit, and NDPC's resident watercolorist Woody Hickcox.

Experience is not required; we teach beginners! Everyone is welcome to join us as we knit and share laughter and information.

Date / Time

We meet every Thursday at 10 a.m. in the church parlor. Some folks who are not able to be with us also knit at home.

More Information

Knit Wits are indebted to NDPC member Ann Herrington for creating this ministry. Two books that figure prominently are Knitting into the Mystery by Susan Jorgensen and Susan Izzard and Prayer Shawl Companion by Janet Bristow and Victoria Cole-Galo.

Testimonials

Janice: "I love Knit Wits because I can pray with my hands and be with friends every week."

Pat: "Even if you can't knit, you can still enjoy the fellowship."

We welcome all.
