*CALL TO WORSHIP

One: The Wind of God's Spirit blows where it wills: free, freedom-bringing, victor over sin, over death.

Two: The Wind of God's Spirit held in the heart and the womb of a young woman from Nazareth village.

Three: The Wind of God's Spirit took hold of Jesus to send him to preach good news to the poor and release to the captives.

Four: The Wind of God's Spirit at Pentecost freed the apostles from bias, self-centeredness, fear, and opened wide the doors of the Upper Room

Five: So that followers of Jesus might always be a community open to the world, free in the Word, clear in our witness, unconquerable in our hope.

Six: The Wind of God's Spirit constantly banishes new fears of the church.

Seven: The Wind of God's Spirit reduces to ashes presumption, pretense, and the pursuit of profit, feeding the flames of justice and liberation—the fiery hearth of Beloved Community.

All: The Wind of God's Spirit is here! Come, Holy Spirit, Come!

The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor,

and binds us together with all believers in the one body of Christ, the Church.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,
we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives,

COMMUNION

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

GREAT THANKSGIVING

This is a map for the traveler, a safe arrival place for the lost
This is a resting place for the wanderer
This is a balm in Gilead for the hurt and bruised
This is a house of welcome for a refugee
This is food for everyone who is hungry, drink for everyone who is thirsty
This is hugs of affection and words of care for one who was abandoned
This is a kiss for the untouchable
This is a lingering place for the weary to rest and heal
This is a safety light for those lost in the dark night of the soul

This is an endless celebration of life
This is a carnival for the body
This is a promise of new life in our hearts
This is a rush of joy never before felt
This is a firm grip on the hand of those fainting
This is an embrace that shelters children in the midst of crossing bullets
This is a shout of glory and alleluia to the world
This is a dancing place for angels
This is holding hands with the ones we love without fear or shame
This is a Sabbath for body, mind, and Spirit
This is a place where the young see visions and elders dream dreams
This is a prison door unlocked
This is restorative justice
This is a family in which diversity is a gift
This is a job that feeds the household
This is education for every child
This is healthcare for every body
This is forgiveness of sins
This is anxiety replaced by trust, fear by love
This is smiles going every which way
This is every tear wiped away
This is pealing laughter and healing for all
This is songs sung and danced to
This is a place to be found, cared for, fed, clothed, warmed, protected, healed
This is all things made new.

PRAYERS & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our [Divine Parent] in heaven, holy is your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

POSTLUDE

NOTES ON WORSHIP TODAY:

Today's art installation was created using a flurry of red, orange, and yellow ribbons that often adorn our sanctuary for Pentecost, along with hundreds of origami doves folded by many hands using bulletins from the past weeks of Eastertide. The fiery colors, the breezy composition, the skyward profusion of descending and ascending birds - all of this is meant to evoke a sense of both the gentle faithfulness and the fierce power of the Holy Spirit.

Members of the Liturgical Arts Group held four meetings to craft this project, and many individual hours were spent at home folding origami doves. At our second meeting, we paused in our work to grieve the mass shootings. As we processed, we created the neurographic artwork that is on the banner in the narthex. The finished piece is presented as an image of the promise of God's faithful presence in both our sorrows and our joys.

Music & Lyrics are printed/streamed under ONE LICENSE #A-719269 and CCLI #21115205 & 21115212
