SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

March 12th, 2023

Third Sunday of Lent

11:00 AM

 We rise in body or spirit*

About the Art: Salt of the earth, light of the world. The table construction at the front of the sanctuary provides a direct visual of these two important metaphors in Jesus' teachings. A subtler reference to the theme is displayed in the narthex on the central pillar of the liturgical calendar. This dimensional collage includes paper stained with a technique that involves sprinkling wet watercolor with coarse salt and brushing the salt away when it's dried. Other paper tiles evoke golden light, some with literal gold leaf reflecting ambient illumination.

PREPARATION & ADORATION

PRELUDE Prelude in D-flat Major, Op. 28, No. 15 "Raindrop" F. Chopin

CALL TO WORSHIP

-Wild Goose Publishing
Rick Neale, Liturgist

I	I
I am	I am
I am giving	I am giving
I am giving you	I am giving you
I am giving you me	I am giving you me
I am giving you me, Lord	I am giving you me, my Beloveds
	I am giving you me
	In the beauty of the earth
	And the ugliness of a wooden cross
	In the fullness of the four seasons
	And the emptiness of a tomb
	In warmth for those who are weak
	And the rejection of the mighty
	In the companionship of one another
	And the solitude of a place apart
	God, may the love you have for me
	Be in them
	So that I may also
	Be in them
	And they in us.

* GATHERING SONG You Are My Refuge, Faithful God (v. 1, 2, 3) Glory to God #214

VISUAL MEDITATION

Why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will God not much more clothe you?

-Matthew 6:28-30

SILENT PRAYERS

* ASSURANCE OF GRACE

-Matthew 11:28-30

“Come to me, all you who are weary
and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you,
and learn from me,
for I am gentle and humble in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls.
For my yoke is easy,
and my burden is light.”

When our lives are joined with yours, Christ,
we are forgiven, loved, and free.

* RESPONSE Come to Me, O Weary Traveler (v. 1, 3, 4) Glory to God #183

* PASSING THE PEACE

*Share a sign of peace by learning “Peace be with you” in American Sign Language.
Children may come to the baptismal font for the children’s message, with or without a parent.*

INVITATION TO DISCIPLESHIP AND CALL FOR OFFERING

All non-pledge gifts made in March will support the One Great Hour of Sharing. The three programs supported by One Great Hour of Sharing - Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and Self-Development of People - all work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. From initial disaster response to ongoing community development, their work fits together to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope. Text 'NDPC C4C $20 (or any amount)' to 73256 to give to our Change for Change offering. Gifts may also be put in the offering plate with an usher after worship.

To make a pledge payment to NDPC, please give through automatic bank payment or send a check by mail. To make a new pledge for 2023, go to the "Give" page on ndpc.org.

* CLOSING SONG For the Beauty of the Earth (v. 1, 2, 5) Glory to God #14

* CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

POSTLUDE Bist du bei mir (Art Thou with Me), BWV 508 J. S. Bach

NOTES ON WORSHIP TODAY:

More on this season's art: the Many Hands group crafts collaborative liturgical artwork with intention and care. The construction process was sticky because of the glue we used, prompting us to muse about the "stickiness" of Lent; the thoughts, habits and mindsets that stick with us even as we yearn to fast from them to make more space for God. We agreed that the variety and uniqueness of each tile evoked our own uniqueness as Lenten seekers, and when we noticed that the tiles suggested fish scales, our imaginations turned quickly to the disciples called by Jesus to leave their catching of fish – and their roles in producing fish paste! – to live fully into God's way.

WELCOME, VISITORS!

We're happy that you've joined us! Please introduce yourself to those around you as you are comfortable. You may share your email address with us by using the QR code on this bulletin—we will send you our weekly e-newsletter. You can learn more about NDPC's ministries and social justice work at www.ndpc.org. We come from different backgrounds, traditions, and cultures to worship. Please use language and pronouns for God and for yourself that are authentic to you. After worship, the pastors would love to meet you.

Welcome, Visitors!

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

Children are always welcome in worship at NDPC. We also offer a nursery for babies and Extended Session childcare for Preschool - 1st grade during the 11:00 service. For Extended Session, please walk your child down the education hallway before worship, or meet a volunteer in the narthex after the Children's Word in Worship.

Magnifying glasses and large print hymnals are available in the lobby. Hearing assist devices are also available. Ask an usher and they will gladly help.

If you would like to donate flowers, volunteer to serve as an usher or liturgist, or share comments about worship, email worship@ndpc.org.

Videos of worship services are available at ndpc.org. Subscribe to our sermon podcast through any major podcasting service.
