Holy One,
we gather this day,
we come as we are
seeking to be your people,
seeking to serve others in your name.

Accept all we bring before you today—
our truths, our doubts, our weary, wondering spirits.

We bring all that we have, and all that we are, to worship you.

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

Glory to God #475

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

MEDITATION

a man who had fallen among thieves lay by the roadside on his back dressed in fifteenthrate ideas
wearing a round jeer for a hat

fate per a somewhat more than less emancipated evening
had in return for consciousness endowed him with a changeless grin

whereon a dozen staunch and leal citizens did graze at pause
then fired by hypercivic zeal sought newer pastures or because swaddled with a frozen brook

of pinkest vomit out of eyes which noticed nobody he looked as if he did not care to rise

one hand did nothing on the vest
its wideflung friend clenched weakly dirt while the mute trouserfly confessed
a button solemnly inert.

Brushing from whom the stiffened puke
i put him all into my arms and staggered banged with terror through a million billion trillion stars

-a man who had fallen among thieves, by e.e. cummings (1915)

SILENCE

How is God speaking to you in these words?

*ASSURANCE OF GRACE

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Elder Susan Henschen

Our [Divine Parent] in heaven, holy is your name, your kin-dom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kin-dom, the power, and the glory forever.

INVITATION TO DISCIPLESHIP AND CALL FOR OFFERING

Our Change-for-Change contributions in March support One Great Hour of Sharing. Each gift to One Great Hour of Sharing supports efforts to relieve hunger through the Presbyterian Hunger Program (36%), promote development through the Presbyterian Committee on the Self-Development of People (32%), and assist in areas of disaster through Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (32%). All three programs work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. From initial disaster response to ongoing community development, their work fits together to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope.

NOTES ON WORSHIP TODAY:

About the Artwork: The silhouettes flanking the sanctuary this season were designed with the help of NDPC community members whose bodies were traced and cut from recyclable cardboard, common stuff of our everyday lives. They call us to consider all manner of God's embodiment in the world and ponder the ways each of us uniquely created to use our hearts and hands, heads and feet to embody God's call.

On the vertical banner in the narthex, a collection of words of focus that were gathered from the congregation on Epiphany Sunday are displayed. These intentions foreground the liturgical calendar that guides us through the church year. In this season of Lent, the banner reminds of the direction where our inner compass asks us to set our face toward Love.

Image of the Day: Rembrandt van Rijn, The Good Samaritan, etching (1633); Vincent Van Gogh, The Good Samaritan, oil on canvas, 1890.

Today's choral offering is a gem from the English Reformation in the 1500s. During the reign of King Edward VI (1547-1553), church composers who had previously written vocal music in Latin were required to use English texts and to write in a "simple style". Thomas Tallis, a prominent musician of the Chapel Royal at the time, was among the first to write sacred music in English. This piece is a setting of Jesus' words of reassurance to his frightened disciples at the Last Supper (John 14:15-27).

Music & Lyrics are printed/streamed under ONE LICENSE #A-719269 and CCLI #21115205 & 21115212; CCS PERFORMmusic & WORSHIPcast License #14957

Livestream and video are produced by NDPC volunteers. If you would like to help with our weekly audio and video production, come up to the balcony and introduce yourself to the team.

WELCOME, VISITORS

We're happy that you've joined us! It takes courage to show up at a new church. Please introduce yourself to those around you as you are comfortable. If you share your email address in the red Welcome Pads, we will send you the weekly NDPC e-newsletter. You can learn more about NDPC's programs at www.ndpc.org. We come from many different backgrounds, traditions, and cultures to worship. Feel free to use language and pronouns for God and for yourself that are authentic to you. After worship, the pastors would love to meet you in person.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

Children are welcome in worship at NDPC. The nursery, located off the hallway just outside the sanctuary door, is open for kids 0-3. Kids are free to move around in the narthex, where you can listen to worship with your child, and there are child-friendly quiet activities in the Children's Corner that can be taken back to your seat. The presence of children in worship is a gift, never a disruption.

Would a large print hymnal, magnifying glass, or hearing assist device help you worship? Ask an usher and they will gladly assist you. Let us know how we can make worship accessible for you.

If you would like to donate flowers, volunteer to serve as an usher or liturgist, or share comments about worship, email worship@ndpc.org.

Videos of previous worship services are available at ndpc.org. Subscribe to our sermon podcast through any major podcasting service.

Revs. David Lewicki, Mary Anona Stoops, and Erin Reed Cooper are available to meet for pastoral care. Pastoral care is confidential and can be held in-person or virtually. Email david@ndpc.org, maryanona@ndpc.org, or erin@ndpc.org.
