PREPARATION & ADORATION

GATHERING SONG Praise, I Will Praise You, God Glory to God #628

CHIMES & SILENCE We enter God's presence in silence.

* CALL TO WORSHIP Carter Broome, liturgist;
by Henrietta Stith Andrews

A word of encouragement came from prophet to people;
Live a life that is full – build, plant, eat, love, multiply--
Pray for your communities
Keep God in the center of all that is.
We enter into worship today with hope in our hearts
For something happens here that reminds us that we can live as God desires
God has made a promise of faithfulness to us and we can trust the promise.

* OPENING SONG Come, Christians, Join to Sing Glory to God #267

MEDITATION

No one leaves home unless home is the mouth of a shark. You only run for the border when you see the whole city running as well, your neighbors running faster than you. The boy you went to school with, who kissed you dizzy behind the old tin factory, is holding a gun bigger than his body. You only leave home when home won't let you stay.

No one would leave home unless home chased you, fire under feet, hot blood in your belly. It's not something you ever thought about doing, so when you did, you carried the anthem under your breath, waiting until the airport toilet to tear up the passport and swallow, each mournful mouthful making it clear you would not be going back.

You have to understand, no one puts their children in a boat unless the water is safer than the land. Who would choose days and nights in the stomach of a truck, unless the miles travelled meant something more than journey.

No one would choose to crawl under fences, beaten until your shadow leaves you, ...forced off the boat because you are darker, drowned, sold, starved, shot at the border like a sick animal, be pitied, lose your name, lose your family, make a refugee camp home for a year or two or ten, stripped and searched, finding prison everywhere. And if you were to survive, greeted on the other side with Go home Blacks, dirty refugees, sucking our country dry of milk, dark with their hands out, smell strange, savage, look what they've done to their own countries, what will they do to ours?

The dirty looks in the streets softer than a limb torn off..., insults easier to swallow than finding your child's body in the rubble.

I want to go home, but home is the mouth of a shark. Home is the barrel of a gun. No one would leave home unless home chased you to the shore. No leaves home until home is a voice in your ear saying—leave, run, now. I don't know what I've become.

Warsan Shire, "Home," from Bless the Daughter Raised by a Voice in Her Head

SILENCE

How is God speaking to you in these words?

* ASSURANCE OF GRACE

"You shall not wrong or oppress the foreigners in your land, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt."

We welcome the stranger, because we, too, have been strangers.

We have all been wandering, lost in a far country,

but it is God, by grace, who leads us home.

In Christ, we are welcomed, forgiven, loved, and free.

Share a sign of peace by learning "Peace be with you" in American Sign Language; or, if you choose, shake hands or offer a warm embrace to the Beloveds of God who are seated near you.

Children 4 yrs. through 2nd grade are invited to leave now with leaders for our child-centered Worship & Wonder time; they may be picked up in the Worship & Wonder room after service. Children may also remain with their family; they may use our worship bags located in the Narthex or go out at any time to visit the Children's Corner in the narthex to find a quiet activity.

ANTHEM

City Called Heaven Traditional, arr. by Josephine Poelintz
 NDPC Community Choir
 Jerel Jefferson, soloist

I am a pilgrim, a poor pilgrim of sorrow,
 I'm left in this wide world, this wide world alone!
 Ain't got no hope, got no hope for tomorrow –
 I'm trying to make it, make heaven my home.

Sometimes I'm tossed and I'm driven, Lord!
 Sometimes I just don't know which way to turn.
 Oh I heard of a city, of a city called heaven.
 I'm trying to make it, make heaven my home.

Our [Divine Parent] in heaven, holy is your name, your kin-dom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. NOTES ON WORSHIP TODAY:

Today's Images in Worship: One (Guerrilla Tea), by Pierre Sernet. From 2001 to 2008, artist Pierre Sernet traveled to over thirty countries to spontaneously enact abbreviated Japanese tea ceremonies, inviting passersby to come sit and drink the cup of matcha he prepared in front of them. Meditation: Migrants arrive by a Turkish boat near the village of Skala, on the Greek island of Lesbos (Nov. 16, 2015), by Sergey Ponomarev for The New York Times.

Today's flowers are provided by the Worship Committee.

Music & Lyrics are printed/streamed under ONE LICENSE #A-719269 and CCLI #21115205 & 21115212; CCS PERFORMmusic & WORSHIPcast License #14957

Livestream and video are produced by NDPC volunteers. If you would like to help with our weekly audio and video production, come up to the balcony and introduce yourself to the team.

WELCOME, VISITORS

We're happy you've joined us! It takes courage to show up at a new church. Introduce yourself to those around you as you feel comfortable. If you share your email address in the red Welcome Pad, we will send you the weekly NDPC e-newsletter. Learn more about NDPC at www.ndpc.org. We come from different backgrounds, traditions, and cultures to worship, so please use language and pronouns for God and for yourself that are authentic to you. After worship, the pastors would love to meet you in person. Ready to join NDPC? Email engagement@ndpc.org.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

Children are welcome in worship at NDPC. The nursery, located off the hallway just outside the sanctuary door, is open for kids 0-3. For PreK – 2nd grade, Worship & Wonder is our child-centered worship; kids go to W&W right after the passing of the peace and are picked up by parents on the playground after worship. Kids who stay with their adult for worship are free to move around in the narthex where you can listen to worship with your child, and there are child-friendly quiet activities in the Children's Corner that can be enjoyed there or taken back to your seat. The presence of children in worship is a gift, never a disruption.

Would a large print hymnal, magnifying glass, or hearing assist device help you worship? Ask an usher and they will gladly assist you. Let us know how we can make worship accessible for you.

If you would like to volunteer to serve as an usher or liturgist, donate flowers, or share comments about worship, email worship@ndpc.org.

Videos of previous worship services are available at ndpc.org. Subscribe to our sermon podcast through any major podcasting service.

Revs. David Lewicki and Mary Anona Stoops are available to meet for pastoral care. Pastoral care is confidential and can be held in-person or virtually. Email david@ndpc.org or maryanona@ndpc.org.
