SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

December 14, 2025, 11AM

Third Sunday of Advent

*An * means we rise together in body or spirit; bold text words are spoken in unison.*

About the Artwork: Crafted by the Many Hands Liturgical Arts Group, our Advent paraments honor the sacred presence of fire, air, water, and earth in the stories of our faith. Each element on the communion tablecloth is expressed within a diamond shape that echoes the visual architecture of the chancel, creating a dialogue between the art and the worship space. The pulpit cloth gathers the colors and textures of the four elements into a star, extending the visual language of the diamonds and evoking the light we await in this season. Pieced and sewn by members and friends of NDPC, the work reflects the diversity and unity of our community in and beyond the church, offering a visual reminder of God's creative energy moving through all creation.

CHIMES & SILENCE

We enter God's presence in silence.

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Jan Cribbs, liturgist

There are many words used in the world to get our attention:

headlines,
“tweets” and “truths,”
propaganda,
sales pitches.

But what words hold an invitation
that offers a way into the future that is hopeful, generous and just?

Hear words from Isaiah that quietly echo the ancient song
of Creation itself,

words that our spirits long to hear:
‘You shall go out in joy,
and be led back in peace;
the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song.’

VISUAL MEDITATION

MEDITATION

With what deep murmurs through time's silent stealth
Doth thy transparent, cool, and wat'ry wealth
Here flowing fall,
And chide, and call,
As if his liquid, loose retinue stay'd
Ling'ring, and were of this steep place afraid;
The common pass
Where, clear as glass,
All must descend
Not to an end,
But quicken'd by this deep and rocky grave,
Rise to a longer course more bright and brave.

Dear stream! dear bank, where often I
Have sate and pleas'd my pensive eye,
Why, since each drop of thy quick store
Runs thither whence it flow'd before,
Should poor souls fear a shade or night,
Who came, sure, from a sea of light?
Or since those drops are all sent back

Water

So sure to thee, that none doth lack,
Why should frail flesh doubt any more
That what God takes, he'll not restore?
O useful element and clear!
My sacred wash and cleanser here,
My first consigner unto those
Fountains of life where the Lamb goes!
What sublime truths and wholesome themes
Lodge in thy mystical deep streams!
Such as dull man can never find
Unless that Spirit lead his mind
Which first upon thy face did move,
And hatch'd all with his quick'ning love.
As this loud brook's incessant fall
In streaming rings restagnates all,
Which reach by course the bank, and then
Are no more seen, just so pass men.
O my invisible estate,
My glorious liberty, still late!
Thou art the channel my soul seeks,
Not this with cataracts and creeks.

The Water-fall, by Henry Vaughn (Welsh, 17th century)

LIGHTING THE ADVENT WREATH

Jill Jacques and Pam Joyce

God, we thank you and give you praise for Water.
We witness water's power to shape earth's canyons and coastlines.
Water surrounds us with safety in our mother's womb.
Water blesses the earth
Making the desert bloom and quenching our thirst.
She cleanses and refreshes, washing over our bodies.
Water awes us with her beauty
As waves crash against rocks or gently roll onto the shore,
As she cascades down a waterfall
Or shrouds a valley in an early morning mist.
God, we thank you and give you praise for Water.

* God, we search for you in the wonders of your creation—
sun and moon, stars and sky, earth and air,
fire and water, north and south, east and west.

We eagerly await your arrival.
At your coming, the whole creation rejoices!

WELCOME, VISITORS

If you share your email address in the red Welcome Pad, we will send you the weekly NDPC e-newsletter. Learn more about NDPC at www.ndpc.org. We come from different backgrounds, traditions, and cultures to worship, so please use language and pronouns for God and for yourself that are authentic to you. After worship, the pastors would love to meet you in person. Ready to join NDPC? Email engagement@ndpc.org.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

Children are welcome in worship at NDPC. The nursery, located off the hallway just outside the sanctuary door, is open for kids 0-3. For PreK – 2nd grade, Worship & Wonder is our child-centered worship; kids go to W&W right after the passing of the peace and are picked up by parents on the playground after worship. Kids who stay with their adult for worship are free to move around in the narthex where you can listen to worship with your child, and there are child-friendly quiet activities in the Children's Corner that can be enjoyed there or taken back to your seat. The presence of children in worship is a gift, never a disruption.

Would a large print hymnal, magnifying glass, or hearing assist device help you worship? Ask an usher and they will gladly assist you. Let us know how we can make worship accessible for you.

If you would like to volunteer to serve as an usher or liturgist, donate flowers, or share comments about worship, email worship@ndpc.org.

Videos of previous worship services are available at ndpc.org. Subscribe to our sermon podcast through any major podcasting service.

Revs. David Lewicki and Mary Anona Stoops are available to meet for pastoral care. Pastoral care is confidential and can be held in-person or virtually. Email david@ndpc.org or maryanona@ndpc.org.
